The Central States Numismatic Society

CENTINEL

EDITORIAL

I suppose it is sort of natural to reflect on the meaning of the Central States Numismatic Society as Convention time draws near. What makes it go, what advantages does it offer? Why do some nearly 1000 persons hold memberships?

I recall my first exposure to the organization, when in November of 1961 I was invited to become a member. My reasons for joining, were that I was visibly impressed by those who represented Central States; it appeared to be the unusual combination of a large organization, but with closely knit ties; it offered prestige; and probably more meaningful than any other factor, I liked the people.

Later, upon being honored to be nominated and elected as a member of the Board of Governors, and subsequently serving in an editorial capacity, I found first hand knowledge of the truth of my earlier convictions. Here is a large organization, probably second in size only to the American Numismatic Association, where no political favors are curried, where every officer is dedicated to the best interest of the organization, where some of the greatest numismatic talent of the world is concentrated, and where fellowship is always at its peak.

No organization ever existed without the possibility of becoming a better one, and that is most true of ours. However, it is improving with each year of its existence, and in my own personal opinion, it is second to no other. Look around you when you attend our convention — you can buy and sell to your heart's content; you can view and examine some of the most choice numismatic material in the world; you can obtain expert information on any phase of numismatics; and you can simply enjoy the wonderful fellowship so abundant when the CSNS convenes.

We are privileged to be members of the Central States Numismatic Society.

PAST PRESIDENT'S BANQUET

A Past President's dinner meeting will be scheduled Thursday night at approximately 7:30. Our Honorary President and all Past Presidents are urged to be present. This will be sponsored by the out-going President.

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

This is my last message as your President. I have enjoyed serving Central States and you, the individual member, is Central States.

Oh, I'll be around officially for two more years anyway as your "Immediate Past President." I wish we could have accomplished more the past two years, but a few things have been done. First, we have created a good sized savings account from the past two conventions, earmarked for the purchase of new exhibit cases. Secondly, a completed, up-to-date constitution and annual business session of this convention. It is published complete elsewhere in this issue. Please read it.

Thirdly, new exhibit rules, classifications, judging and all that goes with it is also ready for adoption after a two year study by Governor Hausske.

Again we have been honored by CSNS members serving on the Assay Commission, Cab Atkins, R. S. Yeoman, Margo Russell, Dorothy Gershenson and Harry Boosel.

Please all note — CHANGE OF LOCATION FOR THE 1964 convention, SAME CITY but the Hotel Continental in Kansas City.

I wish each member could come to Kansas City and take an active part in the business of your Society. The CSNS will grow only as each individual member takes an interest in its functions. I am looking forward to being present this year in person, and to meeting again the many members I know, and also to add some new ones.

DR. F. STEVENS EPPS, President

SPECIAL ELECTION NOTICE

The first ballot you received on light pink paper is INCOMPLETE.

This ballot has been declared VOID.

The second ballot you receive is the one that will be counted. Vote this ballot. If you have already voted the pink ballot, vote again. All pink paper ballots will be destroyed when opened by the election committee.

HOTEL CHANGE FOR CSNS CONVENTION

An overwhelming deluge of reservation requests for bourse space, has resulted in it becoming necessary to change hotels for the 22nd annual Central States Numismatic Society Convention. Instead of being held at the Muehlebach Hotel, as originally planned and announced, the site of the convention is now Kansas City's Continental Hotel.

This change will permit the accommodation of 139 bourse tables, allow plentiful space for all exhibits, and will in no way affect the accessibility to the downtown area of Kansas City, nor the personal comfort of those attending. In announcing the change, co-chairmen Ray Janda and Allison Lowe expressed regrets in finding it necessary to abandon the fine facilities of the Muehlebach, but in deference to the unusually large number of dealer and exhibitor requests for reservations, it was felt that the change would be to the best interests of the Central States Numismatic Society.

Final plans for the convention were completed at a meeting of the officials on Saturday, February 29. Chairmen of various activities, most of whom were present, include, in addition to Janda and Lowe, Nelle B. Godsmark, Registration; Ray O. Lefman, Publicity; Ralph Bondon, Banquet; Ralph Hardman, Exhibits; Betty Lefman, Ladies' Activities; John Cain, Security; John Maxim, Property and Equipment; and Kathy Flynn, Juniors.

Visitors to the convention may view the exhibits free of charge, but those wishing to register and have access to the bourse, may do so for the nominal fee of $1.00. Those registering will be the guests of the host club, the Heart of America Numismatic Association, on a variety of tours. Among those planned, will be a visit to the famous Schlitz Brewery, where a smorgasbord will be sponsored by the host club; sightseeing trips through Kansas City's beautiful residential section; and visits to attractions such as the Truman Library, Nelson Gallery of Art, Midwest Research Institute and Liberty Memorial Mall.

The convention assumes added importance this year, as new officers and governors will be elected and will assume their offices. Of special interest is the election of 13 governors, since there are 18 candidates for the 13 offices. Not more than two may be elected from any one state. The usual business of the Society will be conducted at various meetings, and one of the highlights will be the banquet, being held at 9:00 P.M. on Saturday evening.

Exhibits will feature several outstanding non-competitive collections, and competitive exhibits will be shown in eight classes. These include U.S. Coins (excluding gold), Foreign prior to 1500 A.D., Foreign after 1500 A.D., Paper Money, Gold, Medals-Medallic Art-Decorations, Miscellaneous not included in above, and Juniors.

The auction, consisting of 1200 lots, will be conducted Friday evening and Saturday afternoon by Mr. A. J. Schrager of the Milwaukee Auction Galleries. Among the items to be offered will be an 1856 Flying Eagle cent in proof, and 1895 gem proof dollar, Indian cents in proof, uncirculated commemoratives, gold, Canadian cents and 5c silver, and currency.

Those wishing further information about the convention, are invited to contact either Ray M. Janda, 221 W. 48th St., Regency House, Kansas City, Missouri, or Allison Lowe, 5206 Highland, Kansas City, Missouri.

THE CHATTER BOX

Our Central States Numismatic Society was once more honored by having a number of its members appointed by President Lyndon B. Johnson to serve on the 1964 Assay Commission. Those invited to the February 12 function at the Philadelphia Mint included Margo Russell of Sidney, Ohio; R. S. Yeoman of Racine, Wisconsin; Harry Boosel of Chicago, Illinois; Dorothy Gershenson of Merion, Pennsylvania; and Cab Atkins of Centralia, Missouri.

Your editor (pro tem that is) had the pleasure of sitting in on a planning session of the host Heart of America Numismatic Association in regard to our 22nd annual CSNS Convention. It was quite a revelation with respect to the immense effort exerted in planning every aspect of a successful major convention. No one attending the usual smooth running CSNS conventions, would ever suspect the many, many tedious hours of planning and preparation necessary to make such possible.

The decision of the Treasury Department to cut back proof set orders of 100, was especially welcome news, as it permitted the U.S. Mint to resume accepting orders for a maximum quantity of 2 sets per person. Since proof sets are coined for the COLLECTOR, this seems to be a far more equitable means of distribution.

By the time you read this the new Kennedy half dollars will have been released on a national basis. With 26 million due to be the initial distribution, it is likely that only a very small portion of them will find their way into circulation. At least some, and possibly all, Federal Reserve Banks are already finding it necessary to allot them in limited quantities, due to the heavy ordering of commercial banks. An unusual phenomena is probably in the making, because with what is likely to be the largest half dollar mintage (90,000,000 predicted), CIRCULATED specimens may be practically non-existent.

We hold our annual conventions during a wonderful time of the year. You just can't beat springtime in our CSNS area! As I start to each and every one, it's as if the cares of the world have been removed from my shoulders, and nothing lies ahead but contentment and enjoyment. I often find myself moving much slower than I really should, but who can resist that urge just to soak up the season as though it were a nice hot soaking bath?

Nothing equals responsibility in getting people to act. As a case in point, I am greatly encouraged by the response from our governors in helping me fill in as your editor. Through assuming some of the responsibility in getting out each issue of the Centinel, they are making some worthwhile contributions and my hat is off to them! Now, let's see if we can get the same effort from our member clubs. Which one wants to be the first in line?

FROM THE GOVERNOR'S MANSION

Due to space limitations in this issue, this column is made quite brief. However, it is with a great sense of gratitude that your editor acknowledges notes from Governors August F. Hausske, who has forwarded the Exhibit Rules and Conditions on which he has worked so long and so faithfully; Arnold T. Holmberg who suggested the Schedule of Events; C. A. M. Smith; George D. Hatie, Legal Counsel, who prepared the new Constitution and By-Laws; Michael Dolnick, who advised that plans are already in the making for the 1965 CSNS Convention in Chicago; my predecessor, Elston G. Bradfield, and to all others whose names I may have failed to list.

It can be hoped that the next issue of your Centinel will bear messages from each of your 13 new Governors.

SECRETARY'S MESSAGE

The secretary had ballots made up the same as the forms used two years ago. Our President and Legal Counsel saw the possibility of misunderstandings and advised sending new ballots on different colored paper and changes in wording. All ballots will be delivered to the Election Committee unopened. You have our sincere apologies for any inconvenience we have caused you.

Address changes add to our mailing costs. Centinels mailed a month ago are still coming back because of address changes. Postage due on each is 8c which added to the original 4c and 4c remailing, adds up to 16c. So please notify us of changes and check our list of members in this Centinel for correctness. If a Post Office Box is cancelled please leave forwarding instructions as mail comes back marked "no address." It will help to have your Zip Code as well as we only get directories for the largest cities. Help us and we can give you better service.

PAUL E. OLSON, Sec'y-Treas.

The Secretary-Treasurer shall send a dues notice during the month of April or May to those members who have not paid their dues for the current year. If not paid by September 30th, the Secretary-Treasurer shall inform such members by mail at their last known address, that unless their current year's dues are paid, their resignation accepted, good cause shown to the satisfaction of the Secretary or knowledge of their death has been received by the Secretary on or before October 31st of the then current year, they will automatically forfeit their membership, and their names shall be published in the next issue of the Centinel as having forfeited their membership for non-payment of dues.

Section 10. Members dropped for non-payment of dues may be reinstated only upon the favorable decision of a majority of the members of the Governing Board and the payment of the current year's dues plus a reinstatement fee of $1.00. Resignations in writing by members in good standing, may be accepted by the favorable action of a majority of the members of the Governing Board.

Section 11. Any member violating these By-Laws, committing any unfair or unethical act in his dealings with fellow numismatists, unjustly defaming the character of any other member, interfering with the activities of the Society, being convicted of a felony or engaging in conduct unbecoming to a member shall, by a majority vote of the Governing Board, be expelled from membership. Such action shall not be taken by the Board, however, until the accused member shall have been informed in writing of the complaint(s) against him, and the Governing Board shall have held a private hearing immediately preceding the next annual meeting, at which private hearing both the complainant and the accused shall have had a chance to present evidence and/or arguments as they may desire for consideration by the Board.

ARTICLE III

Section 1. The Society shall have a President, 1st Vice President, 2nd Vice President, Secretary-Treasurer, Immediate Past President and a maximum of thirteen Governors, all of whom shall constitute a Governing Board. Not more than two Governors shall be elected from any one State.

Section 2. All officers and governors shall be elected by the membership at the annual meeting for a period of two (2) years beginning in 1960; except the President shall not be a candidate for re-election.

Section 3. The officers and governors shall be generally responsible for the conduct of the affairs of the Society and shall have such other duties and powers as are herein provided.

Section 4. The officers shall have the usual duties delegated to their respective offices and shall serve without compensation.

Section 5. No debts shall be contracted in the name of the Society without the written approval of the majority of the Governing Board except that the Secretary-Treasurer may purchase and pay for stationery, postage and supplies incidental to said office and the Editor may incur the normal expenditures incidental to the publication of the Centinel and his office. Such expenditures shall be accounted for in the reports of the Secretary-Treasurer and Editor respectively at the end of each Society year. The Secretary-Treasurer shall be allowed (in addition to the aforementioned expenditures) the sum of $200 in April of each year as reimbursement for unrecorded expenditures made by him in the conduct of his office.

Section 6. The President shall, in 1961, and every two years thereafter, issue a call for nominations of officers and governors in the fall issue of the Centinel. All nominations shall be made in writing to the Secretary during the period of November 1st through December 31st. Nominations may be made only by Regular or Life Members in good standing of Central States Numismatic Society at the time of submitting the nominations. The Secretary must obtain written acceptance or refusal from all nominees.

Section 7. The official ballot shall contain only the names of those nominees who have accepted in writing. The Secretary shall cause the names of all such nominees to be printed on an official ballot and a copy thereof to be mailed to each member in good standing, at his or her last recorded address as of February 15th of the election year, together with an envelope addressed to the Secretary and marked "Official Ballot." Voting shall be by mail only. Each voting member shall insert his ballot in the official envelope and seal and mail the same with postage prepaid. Such envelope must be postmarked not later than fifteen (15) days before the opening business session of the election year convention. The Secretary shall retain all sealed ballots unopened and deliver them on the convention's first day to the Election Committee appointed by the President.

The Election Committee shall consist of not less than three (3) members of the Society who are not candidates for office and shall be from at least three different states of the Central States area as defined in Article I, Section 2 of the Constitution. The candidate or candidates receiving the largest number of votes for the respective offices shall be declared duly elected; provided, however, that not more than two candidates residing in any one State may be elected as Governors even though one or more defeated candidates therefrom shall each receive more votes than an elected candidate residing in some other State. The Election Committee or the President will announce the names of those duly elected at the regular business meeting of the Society. Formal installation ceremonies will be optional. New officers and governors shall assume office following the close of the last business session of an election year convention.

Section 8. All classes of members in good standing shall have the right to vote.

Section 9. In the absence of the President at any meeting, the 1st Vice President shall preside. In the absence of both the President and the 1st

Vice President, the 2nd Vice President, the Immediate Past President or a former President shall preside (in the order named). In the absence of the Secretary-Treasurer at any meeting, a former Secretary or a Temporary Secretary may be delegated by the presiding officer to perform the duties of the Secretary.

Section 10. All officers and governors must be individual members in good standing who have attained the age of twenty-one years and who reside within the said Central States area.
